The image shows the cover of the Planet magazine, issue number 11, dated April to September 2015. The cover features a dark blue background with a red horizontal band. At the top left, the word "PLANET" is written in large white letters, with a globe of the Earth integrated into the letter "A". To the right of the globe is the Makita logo in red and white, with the tagline "COSTRUIAMO IL FUTURO" below it. The issue number "N° 11" is printed in white on the red band on the left, and the date "APRILE - SETTEMBRE 2015" is printed in white on the red band on the right. The central focus is a large, golden 3D graphic of the number "100", where the "1" is a power drill, the "0" is a circular saw blade, and the second "0" is a circular saw blade. Below the "100" is a red ribbon with the text "1915 - 2015" in white. At the bottom, the text "IL FUTURO COMPIE 100 ANNI" is written in large, bold, white letters with a black outline.
